

News From The Cub's Den – Week of 5/18

Verse of the Day: "Whoever trusts in the Lord is kept safe."
 Proverbs 29:25 a

"I am a big dinosaur, hear me roar, stomping my feet on the forest floor!..." CES Cubs had an absolute blast this week channeling their inner paleontologists – digging, searching, and uncovering dinosaur bones! What marvelous creatures, bearing witness to the magnificent power of God in creation. As we begin our descent toward the end of a wonderful year at preschool, we are preparing to land in just two short weeks! Please read the announcements below to stay in the know!
